

Wednesday, 24 November 2021

IIM Jammu hosts Communal Harmony Week

NL CORRESPONDENT
JAMMU TAWI, NOV 23

IIM Jammu, along with IIT Jammu, hosted an event on Monday to celebrate the National Harmony Week (19-25 Nov', 2021). The event was graced by Brigadier Gurmeet Singh Shan, Director, Sainik-Seva Board as the Guest of Honor, and Prof. Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean Administration, IIT Jammu. The event was also attended by Prof. B.S Sahay - Director, IIM Jammu, Prof. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, Prof. Manoj Kumar, Chairperson, MBA with other faculty members and students of both the respective institutes. The program began with a mesmerizing dance performance by students from both the institutes, followed by a play to deliver the message about cultural harmony performed by IIM Jammu's Drama Club. The students addressed the need for harmony among the diverse population throughout the country and around the world using poetry, dance, music, and drama. IIM Jammu and IIT Jammu students put up outstanding performances to deliver a message to the masses and promote communal harmony. Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu, praised the students of both the institutes for presenting the message upon communal harmony. He also encouraged the students to practice oneness. He stated "India is a great country with a lot of diversity, and harmony is imperative to make India the finest country. India is important to us and that nothing else matters. India is in the first place. Forever and eternally." The Guest of Honor, Brigadier Gurmeet Singh, in his address, spoke about the value of camaraderie and how it helped him during his time in uniform. Prof. Ashoke K. Sarkar, Dean (Administration), IIT Jammu, averred that celebrating communal harmony is not enough and efforts should be made to preach it as well. Prof. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, expressed that the heart oversees caste and religion while making relationships. The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof. B.S. Sahay to the Guest of Honor.

Wednesday, 24 November 2021

IIM Jammu hosts National Communal Harmony Week

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: IIM Jammu, along with IIT Jammu, hosted an event on Tuesday to celebrate the National Harmony Week (19-25 Nov', 2021). The event was graced by Brigadier Gurmeet Singh Shan, Director, Sainik Sewa Board, as the Guest of Honor, and Prof. Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean Administration, IIT Jammu.

The event was also attended by Prof. B.S Sahay Director, IIM Jammu, Prof. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, Prof. Manoj Kumar, Chairperson, MBA with other faculty members and students of both the institutes. The program began with a mesmerizing dance performance by students from both the institutes, followed by a play to deliver the message about cultural harmony performed by IIM Jammu's Drama Club.

Prof. Sahay said, "India is a great country with a lot of diversity, and harmony is imperative to make India the finest country. India is important to us and that nothing else matters. India is in the first place. Forever and eternally."

The Guest of Honor, Brigadier Gurmeet Singh stated that communal harmony is core for survival. He stressed that in order to eradicate the vestiges of hatred, one must be the change. Prof. Ashoke K. Sarkar averred that celebrating communal harmony is not enough and efforts should be made to preach it as well.

Prof. Jabir Ali expressed that the heart oversees caste and religion while making relationships. He went on to quote Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, saying, "Always aim at complete harmony of thought and word and deed. Always aim at purifying your thoughts and everything will be well".

The vote of thanks was presented by Prof. B.S. Sahay.

Wednesday, 24 November 2021

Guests at National Communal Harmony Week at IIM Jammu.

IIM Jammu along with IIT hosts National Communal Harmony Week

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Nov 23: IIM Jammu, along with IIT Jammu, hosted an event to celebrate the National Harmony Week.

The event was graced by Brigadier Gurmeet Singh Shan, Director, Sainik Seva Board, as the guest of honor and Prof Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean Administration, IIT Jammu. The event was also attended by Prof B S Sahay - Director, IIM Jammu, Prof Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements; Prof Manoj Kumar, Chairperson, MBA with other faculty members and students of both the respective institutes.

The program began with a mesmerizing dance performance by students from both the institutes, followed by a play to deliver the message about cultural harmony performed by IIM Jammu's Drama Club. The students addressed the need for harmony among the diverse population throughout the country and around the world using poetry, dance, music, and drama. IIM Jammu and IIT Jammu students put up outstanding performances to deliver a message to the masses and promote communal harmony.

Prof B S Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu, encouraged the students to practice oneness. He stated that India is a great country with a lot of diversity, and harmony is imperative to make India the finest country. "India is important to us and that nothing else matters. India is in the first place. Forever and eternally," he said.

The guest of honor, Brigadier Gurmeet Singh, in his address, spoke about the value of camaraderie and how it helped him during his time in uniform. He stated that communal harmony is core for survival. He stressed that in order to eradicate the vestiges of hatred, one must be the change.

Prof Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean (Administration), IIT Jammu, averred that celebrating communal harmony is not enough and efforts should be made to preach it as well.

Prof Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, expressed that the heart oversees caste and religion while making relationships. He went on to quote Mahatma Gandhi saying, "Always aim at complete harmony of thought and word and deed. Always aim at purifying your thoughts and everything will be well".

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Prof B S Sahay.

IIM Jammu hosts National Communal Harmony Week

■ TNN BUREAU

JAMMU: IIM Jammu, along with IIT Jammu, hosted an event to celebrate the National Harmony Week. The program began with a mesmerizing dance performance by students from both the institutes, followed by a play to deliver the message about cultural harmony performed by IIM Jammu's Drama Club. The students addressed the need for harmony among the diverse population throughout the country and around the world using poetry, dance, music, and drama. IIM Jammu and IIT Jammu students put up outstanding performances to deliver a message to the masses and promote communal harmony. BS Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu praised the students of both the institutes for presenting the message upon communal harmony. He also encouraged the students to practice oneness. He stated "India is a great country with a lot of diversity, and harmony is imperative to make India the finest country. India is important to us and that nothing else matters. India is in the first place. Forever and eternally."

Brigadier Gurmeet Singh spoke about the value of camaraderie and how it helped him during his time in uniform. He stated that communal harmony is core for survival. He stressed that in order to eradicate the vestiges of hatred, one must be the change. Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean (Administration), IIT Jammu, averred that celebrating communal harmony is not enough and efforts should be made to preach it as well. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, expressed that the heart oversees caste and religion while making relationships. He went on to quote Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, saying, "Always aim at complete harmony of thought and word and deed. Always aim at purifying your thoughts and everything will be well".

अमर उजाला

Wednesday, 24 November 2021

आईआईएम में राष्ट्रीय सांप्रदायिक सप्ताह शुरू

जम्मू। आईआईएम जम्मू में मंगलवार को राष्ट्रीय सांप्रदायिक (हार्मोनी) सप्ताह का शुभारंभ किया गया। कार्यक्रम में ब्रिगेडियर गुरमीत सिंह शान मुख्य अतिथि रहे। इस मौके पर विद्यार्थियों ने सांस्कृतिक कार्यक्रम भी प्रस्तुत किए। संस्थान के निदेशक प्रो. बीएस सहाय ने बताया कि कार्यक्रम करवाने का उद्देश्य छात्रों को राष्ट्रीय सांप्रदायिकता के बारे में जानकारी देना है, ताकि वे लोगों को अमन-शांति कायम रखने के लिए जागरूक कर सकें। संवाद

Wednesday, 24 November 2021

IIM Jammu and IIT Jammu dignitaries at Communal Harmony Campaign

Jammu, November 23 (Scoop News)- IIM Jammu, along with IIT Jammu, hosted an event on 23rd November 2021 to celebrate the National Harmony Week (19-25 Nov', 2021). The event was graced by Brigadier Gurmeet Singh Shan, Director, SainikSeva Board, as the Guest of Honor, and Prof. Ashoke K Sarkar, Dean Administration, IIT Jammu. The event was also attended by Prof. B.S Sahay - Director, IIM Jammu, Prof. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, Prof. Manoj Kumar, Chairperson, MBA with other faculty members and students of both the respective institutes.

The program began with a mesmerizing dance performance by students from both the institutes, followed by a play to deliver the message about cultural harmony performed by IIM Jammu's Drama Club. The students addressed the need for harmony among the diverse population throughout the country and around the world using poetry, dance, music, and drama. IIM Jammu and IIT Jammu students put up outstanding performances to deliver a message to the masses and promote communal harmony.

Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu, praised the students of both the institutes for presenting the message upon communal harmony. He also encouraged the students to practice oneness. He stated "India is a great country with a lot of diversity, and harmony is imperative to make India the finest country. India is important to us and that nothing else matters. India is in the first place. Forever and eternally."

The Guest of Honor, Brigadier Gurmeet Singh, in his address, spoke about the value of camaraderie and how it helped him during his time in uniform. He stated that communal harmony is core for survival. He stressed that in order to eradicate the vestiges of hatred, one must be the change.

Prof. Ashoke K. Sarkar, Dean (Administration), IIT Jammu, averred that celebrating communal harmony is not enough and efforts should be made to preach it as well. Prof. Jabir Ali, Chairperson, MBA Placements, expressed that the heart oversees caste and religion while making relationships. He went on to quote Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, saying, "Always aim at complete harmony of thought and word and deed. Always aim at purifying your thoughts and everything will be well".

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Prof. B.S. Sahay to the Guest of Honor.

