■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu invited Dr Cyril Foroapon from the Montpellier Business School (MBS) France to teach MBA students at IIM Jammu.

A PhD degree holder in Management from HEC Paris, Dr Foroapon is a professor of Operations and Supply Chain Management in the Department of Entrepreneurship and Strategy as well as Director of DBA Programmes in China at Montpellier Business School (MBS). Research interests of Prof Foroapon are in fields of quality management and humanitarian supply chain management.

He is particularly interested in the implementation of lean management within both service and manufacturing organizations, quality management practices within ISO 9000 candidate organisations, process management within humanitarian non-governmental organisations, and use of metaphors in operations management theory building.

His articles have been published in IJPE, IJPR, IJOPM, AOR, JCP, MD, IJIM, IJLM, amongst other leading academic journals.

Further, Prof Foroapon is a Black-Belt in Lean

Management Six Sigma Certified (Centrale Supélec) and expert in case method teaching (Harvard Business School). He has more than 15 years of teaching experience in front of a large variety of audiences (undergraduate, MBA, Executive MBA, Master, MSc, DBA, and executive education) from Canada to France or China.

Recently, he has developed a CGE-accredited Master of Science (MSc) in Lean Operations Management with a view to prepare all MSc students to face challenges, solve problems, and to embrace opportunities within all types of companies in order to transform these firms into world-class and highly successful companies.
