

शिक्षा को रोजगारोन्मुख बनाने की जरूरत

प्रमुख सचिव रोहित कंसल ने कहा, कौशल विकास पर भी जोर देना बहुत जरूरी

संवाद न्यूज एजेंसी

जम्मू। शिक्षा को रोजगारोन्मुख बनाने की जरूरत है। इसके अलावा कौशल विकास पर भी ध्यान देना होगा। जिससे शिक्षा प्रणाली को मजबूत बनाया जा सके। यह बात उच्च शिक्षा विभाग के प्रमुख सचिव रोहित कंसल ने वीरवार को आईआईएम की ओर से आयोजित एशिया होटल में महात्मा गांधी नेशनल फोलेशिप अकादमिक मॉड्यूल ऑफ संकल्प में बारह दिवसीय कार्यक्रम में कही।

प्रमुख सचिव ने कहा कि एमीजीएन दो साल का प्रोग्राम है। जो जिला कौशल प्रशासन और जिला कौशल समितियों (डीएससी) को मजबूत करने के लिए जिला स्तर पर कक्षा सत्रों को जोड़ता है। शिक्षा क्षेत्र का विस्तार करने पर जोर देते हुए उन्होंने कहा कि आधुनिक शिक्षा के माध्यम से बेहतर कौशल को तैयार करने की जरूरत है। रोजगार के लिए प्रत्येक क्षेत्र में कौशल विकास होना चाहिए। इसी

आईआईएम की ओर से आयोजित कार्यक्रम में बोलते रोहित कंसल। संवाद

प्रतिभागियों को मिला सीखने का मौका

इस दौरान प्रतिभागियों को ऑफ कैम्पस मेटरिंग फील्ड, फील्ड अनुभव और वर्कशाप में नई चीजें सीखने का मौका मिला।

कई राज्यों के प्रतिभागी भी शामिल हुए

जम्मू-कश्मीर समेत पश्चिम बंगाल, लद्दाख, चंडीगढ़ और पुदुचेरी के प्रतिभागी भी कार्यक्रम में भाग ले रहे हैं। कार्यक्रम को कौशल विकास और उद्यमिता मंत्रालय (एमएसडीआई) भारत सरकार के मार्ग दर्शन से शुरू कर राज्य कौशल विकास मिशन के सहयोग से लागू किया गया है।

को ध्यान में रखते हुए विश्वविद्यालयों में भी पढ़ाई के साथ कौशल विकास कोर्स करवाए जा रहे हैं। उन्होंने कहा कि 4.0 के लिए सिस्टम को भी बेहतर करना होगा। इस मौके पर उन्होंने किसानों की आय दोगुनी करने,

सार्वजनिक सेवाओं का कुशल संचालन, सामाजिक कल्याण योजना, बैंक टू विलेज सहित कई विषयों पर विचार व्यक्त किया। इस दौरान कार्यक्रम के सह निदेशक डा. मुकबिल बुरहान आदि रहे।

Friday, 11 March 2022-Print Version

Education system needs to be updated for future industry trends: Kansal

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Mar 10: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today. The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

He shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of

Principal Secretary HED, Rohit Kansal speaking during MGN Fellowship module of Sankalp on Thursday.

of Back to Village programmes and hailed its grounds-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form

Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education system needs updation for future industry trends: Govt

Earth News Service

Jammu, Mar. 10 : Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today. The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education. Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

■Contd on Page 2

Education system needs...

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its ground-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education system needs to update for future industry trends: Rohit Kansal

JAMMU: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today. The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form of its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its grounds-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education system needs to update with future trends: Kansal

NORTHLINES CORRESPONDENT

JAMMU TAWI, MAR 10: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia on Thursday.

The 12-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

■ Cont. on Page 2

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its grounds-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education system needs to update for future industry trends: Rohit Kansal

Jammu, Mar 10: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal on Thursday said that the education system needs to be updated for future industry trends. He was presiding over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today.

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of the demographic dividend of India in the form of its vast young population.

He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education. Elaborating on the education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare a better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system needs to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to the government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its ground-up approach. IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu. MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

<https://www.risingkashmir.com/Education-system-needs-to-update-for-future-industry-trends--Rohit-Kansal-102274>

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education system needs to update for future industry trends: Kansal

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal on Thursday presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia.

The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Principal Secretary HED Rohit Kansal speaking at a programme at Jammu.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its ground-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

Friday, 11 March 2022

Education System Needs To Update For Future Industry Trends: Rohit Kansal

11 March, 2022, By Cross Town News

- Share this Post:

JAMMU, MARCH 10: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today.

The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour.

We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said. The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

Rohit Kansal shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for institutionalisation of their novel initiatives.

He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its ground-up approach. IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning.

Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs).

Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

<https://www.crosstownnews.in/post/75184/education-system-needs-to-update-for-future-industry-trends-rohit-kansal.html>

Friday, 11 March 2022- Web Version

Education system needs to be updated for future industry trends: Kansal

By Daily Excelsior 11/03/2022

Principal Secretary HED, Rohit Kansal speaking during MGN Fellowship module of Sankalp on Thursday.

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Mar 10: Principal Secretary, Higher Education Department, Rohit Kansal presided over the ongoing Mahatma Gandhi National Fellowship academic module of Sankalp at Hotel Asia today. The twelve-days programme, from March 7 to March 19, has been conducted by the Indian Institute of Management, IIM Jammu.

MGN Fellowship is a two-year programme which combines classroom sessions at IIM with an intensive field immersion at the district level to strengthen the district skill administration and the District Skill Committees (DSCs).

Speaking at the occasion, the Principal Secretary underlined the need to reap benefits of demographic dividend of India in the form its vast young population. He stressed on the need to successfully convert it into a talented workforce through modern education.

Elaborating education sector, the Principal Secretary said that the sector needs to be updated to be more gainful and employment oriented. 'Reorientation of our education system towards skill development is the need of the hour. We need to prepare better skilled workforce through education', he said.

The Principal Secretary called for aligning skill and education being imparted by universities with workplace opportunities of the future. He said that the system need to upgrade itself to cater to the upcoming Industry 4.0 trends.

He shared his ideas on a plethora of subjects, including doubling of farmers income, efficient delivery of public services and social welfare schemes etc. He called upon the fellows to act as crusaders of change and give recommendations to government for the institutionalisation of their novel initiatives. He suggested that the fellows take inputs from local stakeholders while proposing any development for the latter.

The Principal Secretary also shared lessons from the success of Back to Village programmes and hailed its grounds-up approach.

IIM faculty would teach course content under each course module that is consistent with 40 contact days; along with off-campus mentoring, field experience, and workshops that should form an integral part of the learning. Fellows from J&K, West Bengal, Ladakh, Chandigarh and Puducherry are participating in the programme.

The programme has been designed by the initiative of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India, and implemented in collaboration with State Skill Development Missions (SSDMs). Dr. Muqbil Burhan, Co-Program Director, MGNF was also present at the occasion.

<https://www.dailyexcelsior.com/education-system-needs-to-be-updated-for-future-industry-trends-kansal/>