IIM Jammu in collaboration with NCW holds programme for women entrepreneurs

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu, on behalf of the National Commission for Women (NCW), is conducting a "Certificate Program in General Management for aspiring Women Entrepreneurs" (CPG-MAWE).

The programme is aimed to fulfill the needs of aspiring women entrepreneurs who want to gain knowledge about introductory Business Management, which could enable them to start and run their Venture.

IIM Jammu has designed, developed, and will be delivering this training program on behalf of the National Commission for Women (NCW) for potential women entrepreneurs on general management covering all the functional areas of business.

The inaugural ceremony for the programme was held with an inaugural address by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu, Meeta Rajivlochan, Member Secretary, NCW, A. Asholi Chalai, Joint Secretary, NCW, Dr. Pankaj Agarwal, Chairperson Executive Education, and Associate Professor, IIM Jammu, Dr. Prateek Jain, Co-Programme Director, CPG-MAWE, and Associate Professor, IIM Jammu, and Dr. Parvathy B., Co-Programme Director, CPG-MAWE and Assistant Professor, IIM Jammu.

A total of 1375 candidates had applied for this Programme on the MyGov portal. After the shortlisting process by IIM Jammu, 125 candidates have been selected for the first batch. More batches are planned to be rolled out after this batch.

Prof. Sahay said, "Entrepreneurship has always been a gendered phenomenon, with a far lesser number of women choosing it as a road to empowerment. IIM Jammu has always been a pioneer in gender diversity, and we strongly believe that collaborations like these will change the status quo and unleash the untapped potential of women entrepreneurs."

"In a knowledge economy, access to knowledge is crucial. Through this collaboration with the Indian Institute of Management, the National Commission for Women aims to facilitate such access to knowledge; to empower women entrepreneurs, and pave the way for a happy, balanced, and prosperous India," said Meeta Rajivlochan.

The Program will run over a period of 6 weeks, thereby delivering 12 sessions totalling 36 hours of learning. The sessions of the Program will be delivered live via online mode by the IIM Jammu Faculty.

The sessions will be conducted on Saturday and Sunday, with each session of 3 hours.

Participants who satisfy the specified criteria and meet the set-out performance in the periodic evaluation will be awarded a "Certificate of Completion". If the participant doesn't fulfill the above criteria, she can be given a "Certificate of Participation". The NCW and IIM Jammu will jointly issue this Certificate.
