

Thursday, June 4, 2020

IIM Jammu signs MoU with University of South Pacific

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: To broaden the horizon of its academic and research activities, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu on Wednesday signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the University of the South Pacific, Fiji. This collaboration will support both the partners in achieving the excellence in academics and research.

The MoU was inked by Prof. B.S Sahay, Director IIM Jammu and Prof. Pal Ahluwalia, Vice-Chancellor and President of the University of the South Pacific.

"It will be helpful in increasing the speed of advancement in teaching, research, cultural understanding as well as the international reputation of both the institutes through student exchange, faculty exchange, joint management and research programmes," Prof. B.S Sahay said.

This pact, he added, will give international exposure to students by providing them with the opportunity to learn from international environment under the international student exchange programme of IIM Jammu.

This will be helpful for students to sharpen their skills and knowledge by working in close association with the students and faculties from the diverse cultural groups, he added.

With the motive that education and learning should never stop, he said, both the institutions are exploring the possibility for the virtual student and faculty exchange programmes for the current academic year in order to deal with the situation arising out of COVID-19 pandemic.

Thursday, June 04, 2020

To broaden the academics, IIM Jammu, South Pacific University sign MoU

GJ REPORT

JAMMU, JUN 3: To broaden the horizon of its academic and research activities, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu here on Wednesday signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the University of the South Pacific, Fiji. This collaboration will support both the partners to achieve the excellence in academics and research.

The MoU has been inked by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu and Prof. Pal Ahluwalia, Vice-Chancellor and President the University of the South Pacific.

"It will be helpful in increasing the speed of advancement in teaching, research, cultural understanding as well as the international reputation of both the institutes through student exchange, faculty exchange, and joint management and research programs," they informed.

University of the South Pacific is the premier provider of tertiary education in the Pacific region and an international centre of excellence for teaching, research consulting and training on all aspects of Pacific culture, environment and human resource development needs.

It offers under-graduation, post-graduation and doctoral programs to the students and provides them the world class facilities to enrich their learning experiences.

It was informed that the signed pact will give international exposure to students by providing them with the opportunity to learn from international environment under the international student exchange program of IIM Jammu.

This will be helpful for students to sharpen their skills and knowledge by working in close association with the students and faculties from the diverse cultural groups.

With the motive that education and learning should never stop, both the institutions are exploring the possibility for the virtual student and faculty exchange programmes for the current academic year in order to deal with the situation arising out of Covid-19 pandemic.

IIM Jammu and the University of the South Pacific sign MoU

Published: | June 4, 2020

Jammu, June 03 (Scoop News)-To broaden the horizon of its academic and research activities, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the University of the South Pacific, Fiji. This collaboration will support both the partners in achieving the excellence in academics and research.

The MoU has been inked by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu and Prof. Pal Ahluwalia, Vice-Chancellor and President the University of the South Pacific. It will be helpful in increasing the speed of advancement in teaching, research, cultural understanding as well as the international reputation of both the institutes through student exchange, faculty exchange, joint management and research programs.

The University of the South Pacific is the premier provider of tertiary education in the Pacific region and an international centre of excellence for teaching, research consulting and training on all aspects of Pacific culture, environment and human resource development needs. It offers under-graduation, post-graduation and doctoral programs to the students and provides them the world class facilities to enrich their learning experiences.

This pact will give international exposure to students by providing them with the opportunity to learn from international environment under the international student exchange program of IIM Jammu. This will be helpful for students to sharpen their skills and knowledge by working in close association with the students and faculties from the diverse cultural groups.

With the motive that education and learning should never stop, both the institutions are exploring the possibility for the virtual student and faculty exchange programs for the current academic year in order to deal with the situation arising out of COVID-19 Pandemic.