

Wednesday, 28 July 2021

IIM Jammu signs MoU with DHBW Germany

NL CORRESPONDENT
JAMMU TAWI, JULY 27

Indian Institute of Management, Jammu, and Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW) Loerrach, Germany, has agreed to initiate the academic exchange and mobility for students and faculty members and explore avenues for research collaborations.

The senior representatives of both institutions, Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, and Prof. Arnold van Zyl, President DHBW and Dr. Theodor Karl Sproll, Rector DHBW Loerrach, signed off the agreement. Professor Jabir Ali, Dr. Aakash Kamble from IIM Jammu, and Ms. Kathrin Hebert, Head of

International Office and Professor Sylvia Gnad, Delegate International Affairs and Ms. Thereza Kistner, Assistant at International Office at DHBW Loerrach, played an instrumental role in negotiating the terms of the agreement. The agreement paves a roadmap for both institutions to partner in strategic initiatives, academics, research, and executive education and builds synergies. DHBW Loerrach offers a unique blend of industry practice phases and workplace training along with classroom learning. The strategic models of engagement have been identified to form the basis of the association. They will focus on student exchange for the MBA

Programme and the 5-year Integrated Programme in Management (IPM) with faculty exchanges and doctoral research scholar exchange between the partners. The faculty members at both institutions will also partner for research collaborations and joint research projects.

The partnership provides cross-cultural linkages for the stakeholders of both institutions aiding in the propagation of ideas. The partnership will provide an opportunity to collaborate with world-class faculties and researchers and expand global research. It will also help students gain international experience that will benefit them in their future careers.

IIM Jammu signs MoU with DHBW of Germany

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, July 27: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu, and Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW) Loerrach, Germany have signed an agreement for academic exchange and research collaborations.

Both the institutions have agreed to initiate the academic exchange and mobility for students and faculty members and explore avenues for research collaborations.

The senior representatives of both the institutions, Prof B S Sahay, Director IIM Jammu and Prof Arnold van Zyl, President DHBW and Dr Theodor Karl Sproll, Rector DHBW Loerrach, signed off the agreement.

The agreement paves a roadmap for both institutions to partner in strategic initiatives, academics, research, and executive education and builds synergies. DHBW Loerrach offers a unique blend of industry practice phases and workplace training along with classroom learning. The strategic models of engagement have been identified to form the basis of the association. They will focus on student exchange for the MBA Programme and the 5-year Integrated Programme in Management (IPM) with faculty exchanges and doctoral research scholar exchange between the partners. The faculty members at both institutions will also partner for research collaborations and joint research projects.

The partnership provides cross-cultural linkages for the stakeholders of both institutions aiding in the propagation of ideas. The partnership will provide an opportunity to collaborate with world-class faculties and researchers and expand global research.

Monday, 26 July 2021

IIM Jammu, DHBW Loerrach Germany sign agreement for academic exchange; research collaborations

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu and Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW) Loerrach, Germany, has agreed to initiate the academic exchange and mobility for students and faculty members and explore avenues for research collaborations.

The senior representatives of both institutions, Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, and Prof. Arnold van Zyl, President DHBW and Dr. Theodor Karl Sproll, Rector DHBW Loerrach, signed off the agreement.

Prof. Jabir Ali, Dr. Aakash Kamble from IIM Jammu, and Kathrin Hebert, Head of International Office and Professor Sylvia Gnad, Delegate International Affairs and Thereza Kistner, Assistant at International Office at DHBW Loerrach, played an instrumental role in negotiating the terms of the agreement.

The agreement paves a roadmap for both institutions to partner in strategic initiatives, academics, research, and executive education and builds synergies. DHBW Loerrach offers a unique blend of industry practice phases and workplace training along with classroom learning.

The strategic models of engagement have been identified to form the basis of the association. They will focus on student exchange for the MBA Programme and the 5-year Integrated Programme in Management (IPM) with faculty exchanges and doctoral research scholar exchange between the partners. The faculty members at both institutions will also partner for research collaborations and joint research projects.

The partnership provides cross-cultural linkages for the stakeholders of both institutions aiding in the propagation of ideas.

The partnership will provide an opportunity to collaborate with world-class faculties and researchers and expand global research.

It will also help students gain international experience that will benefit them in their future careers.

IIM Jammu DHBW signs agreement for academic exchange, research collaborations

■ TNN BUREAU

JAMMU: Indian Institute of Management, Jammu and Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW) Loerrach, Germany, has agreed to initiate the academic exchange and mobility for students and faculty members and explore avenues for research collaborations.

The senior representatives of both institutions, BS Sahay, Director IIM Jammu and Arnold van Zyl, President DHBW and Theodor Karl Sproll, Rector DHBW Loerrach, signed off the agreement. The agreement paves a roadmap for both institutions to partner in strategic initiatives, academics, research, and executive education and builds synergies. DHBW Loerrach offers a unique blend of industry practice phases and workplace training along with classroom learning.

The strategic models of engagement have been identified to form the basis of the association. They will focus on student exchange for the MBA Programme and the 5-year Integrated Programme in Management (IPM) with faculty exchanges and doctoral research scholar exchange between the partners. The faculty members at both institutions will also partner for research collaborations and joint research projects.

The partnership provides cross-cultural linkages for the stakeholders of both institutions aiding in the propagation of ideas. The partnership will provide an opportunity to collaborate with world-class faculties and researchers and expand global research. It will also help students gain international experience that will benefit them in their future careers.

Wednesday, 28 July 2021

IIM, Jammu and DHBW Germany sign agreement for academic exchange and research collaborations

Jammu, July 27 (Scoop News)-Indian Institute of Management, Jammu, and Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg (DHBW) Loerrach, Germany, has agreed to initiate the academic exchange and mobility for students and faculty members and explore avenues for research collaborations.

The senior representatives of both institutions, Prof. B. S. Sahay, Director IIM Jammu, and Prof. Arnold van Zyl, President DHBW and Dr. Theodor Karl Sproll, Rector DHBW Loerrach, signed off the agreement. Professor Jabir Ali, Dr. Aakash Kamble from IIM Jammu, and Ms. Kathrin Hebert, Head of International Office and Professor Sylvia Gnad, Delegate International Affairs and Ms. Thereza Kistner, Assistant at International Office at DHBW Loerrach, played an instrumental role in negotiating the terms of the agreement.

The agreement paves a roadmap for both institutions to partner in strategic initiatives, academics, research, and executive education and builds synergies. DHBW Loerrach offers a unique blend of industry practice phases and workplace training along with classroom learning. The strategic models of engagement have been identified to form the basis of the association. They will focus on student exchange for the MBA Programme and the 5-year Integrated Programme in Management (IPM) with faculty exchanges and doctoral research scholar exchange between the partners. The faculty members at both institutions will also partner for research collaborations and joint research projects.

The partnership provides cross-cultural linkages for the stakeholders of both institutions aiding in the propagation of ideas. The partnership will provide an opportunity to collaborate with world-class faculties and researchers and expand global research. It will also help students gain international experience that will benefit them in their future careers.

