

IIM Jammu Sign MoU with HEM Business School, Morocco

Expanding its international relations, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu has signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the HEM Business School, Morocco. The MoU is aimed at providing international experience, academic and research development of students and faculty members of both the institutions.

The MoU was signed between Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu and Dr. Hassan Sayarh, Director General, HEM Business School, and Ali El Quammah, Director, HEM Business School, Morocco. This will be helpful in bringing the advancement in teaching, research and cultural understanding of both the institutes through student exchange, faculty exchange, joint management and research programs, which will further enhance the international reputation of both the institutes.

The HEM Business School, Morocco was founded in 1988 with a dream to provide excellence in higher education in management and train graduates in the way of socially responsible managers and change leaders with open mindedness. For this, HEM Business School is following a rigorous admission procedures for the students along with the adequate educational programs.

This agreement will hone the skills, knowledge and understanding of students of both the institutes by providing them the international exposures and opportunities to work with the students and faculties from the diverse cultural and educational groups.